

I have had a request for the South Seas Chickens pattern in pdf format. I've attached a copy of the paper pieced chicken block and a page for the applique. Both are half-size so you will have to copy them at 200% to get full size pattern.

I can't include details of construction.

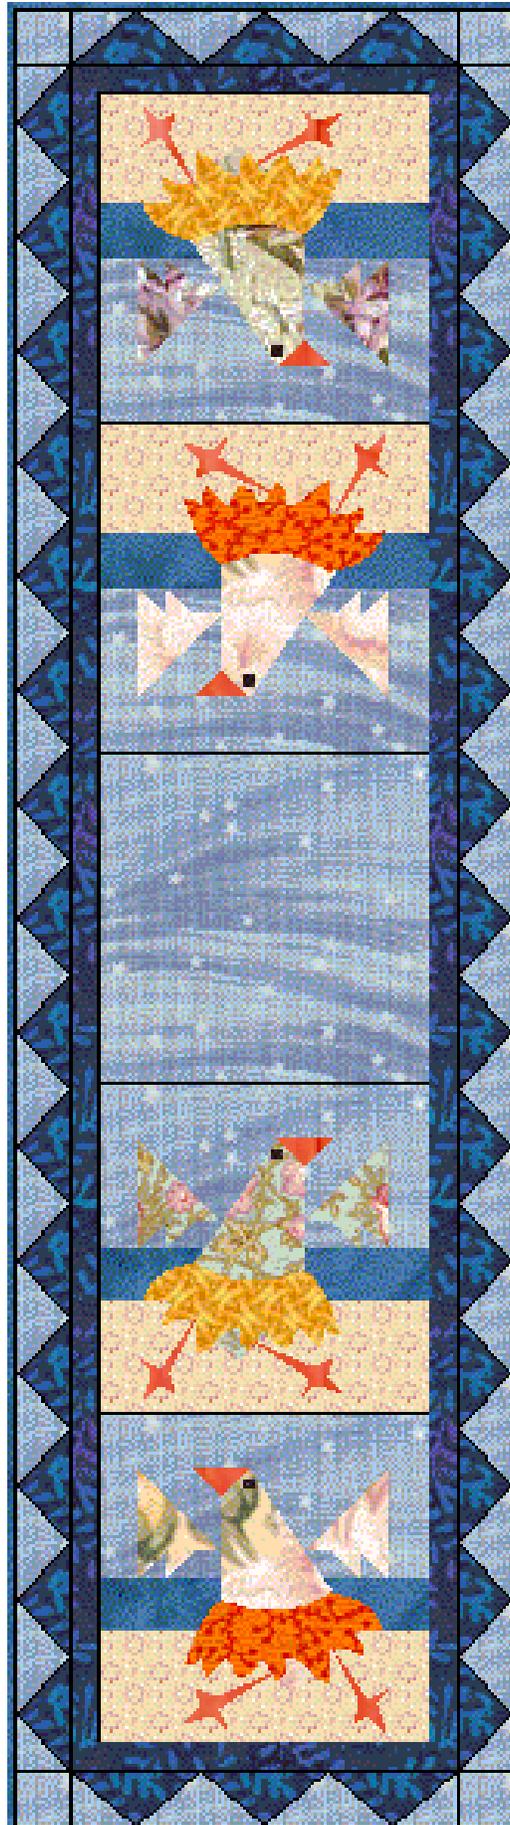

The patterns and blocks are copyrighted by me, Marje Rhine of Quilt Design NW

I have put them here for your enjoyment. You may not make copies for any reason other than to make your personal project. Thanks for respecting my copyright so I can offer this design to you for no charge.
